Become an official O.U.R. Volunteer to shine a light on Human Trafficking by raising funds and awareness. We rely heavily on our volunteer abolitionists to advocate for this cause. Here are some ways you can help!

- ✓ Host an awareness night with your friends and family.
- ✓ Invite your friends to a movie screening of "Operation Toussaint".
- ✓ Become an O.U.R. Responder by taking the online Signs of Trafficking Training Course.
- ✓ What are your talents and skills? Use them to host a fundraiser!
- ✓ Support local O.U.R. Events and Volunteer Teams (if applicable).
- ✓ Follow O.U.R. on social media and repost/share O.U.R. posts to raise awareness.
- ✓ Purchase a street kit.
- ✓ Share on your social media channels why you are an abolitionist and encourage others to get involved.
- ✓ Talk to your friends and family and encourage them to learn more about human trafficking and O.U.R.
- ✓ Use Amazon Smile when you shop and invite everyone you know to support O.U.R.
- ✓ Become an Abolitionist by donating $5 a month and encourage others to be Abolitionists too.
- ✓ Hold a birthday fundraiser on Facebook.
- ✓ Support organizations in your community who help survivors of human trafficking.
- ✓ Read a book on slavery to become more educated on the topic.
- ✓ Research your state laws regarding human trafficking.
- ✓ Join your local human trafficking task force if available.
